OPEN or SEMI-OPEN adoption

- The woman chooses the adoptive couple according to her criteria;
- The woman maintains a link, direct or indirect, with the child;
- The woman specifies to the child at a very young age that she entrusted him or her out of love, to offer him/her a better home because she was not able to welcome him/her adequately at that time;
- There is no mystery or cover-up involved. Everything is known and honest. The child will not be frustrated that something so important was hidden from them and he/she understands that they were not abandoned or rejected.
